Tour 1: Flanders Fields
Battlefields of the “Great War”

Our famous trip to the WWI Battlefields and memorials of the Ypres Salient. A sobering and eye-opening part of the Western Front.

Stops include:
- The imposing Menin Gate, memorial to 55,000 missing soldiers and their sacrifice for ‘King and Country’.
- Now tranquil war graves in Tyne Cot Cemetery, Passchendaele.
- Polygon Wood, its cemeteries and memorials.
- The preserved battlefield of Hill 60 (Battle of Messines).
- A leisurely lunch at Hooge Crater Museum.
- The infamous Menin Road.
- Bunkers and craters.
- Unearthed ammunition - the Iron Harvest.
- A German cemetery.
- Field Dressing Station, site John McCrae.
- Monuments to all the British Forces, incl. ANZAC and Canadian.
- Beautiful Ypres (Wipers).
- A trench.
- It is possible to visit an ancestor’s grave and to extend the trip to include the Last Post Ceremony. Please ask in advance.

The Last Post
This tour can be extended to include the Last Post Ceremony in Ypres at 8.00 pm. Only €17.50 pp extra. Return by taxi to Bruges and be dropped off at your hotel at ± 9.15 pm. Limited seats available so please enquire when reserving.

Tour 2: The Best of Belgium

in one day with a Triple Treat

Guaranteed Fun and Fascinating and given by a true Fleming who prides himself on answering all your questions! Enjoy the countryside and villages surrounding Bruges, Flemish culture, history and scenery.

What you see:
- The moated Castle of Tillegem.
- Beautiful Damme, old medieval harbour.
- The neo-gothic Chateau of Loppem, full of priceless Flemish artworks and treasures.
- Romantic tree-lined canals.
- Picturesque villages and windmills.
- Scenic countryside (and cows!)
- Canadian WWII battle site and huge German bunkers.
- One of the oldest gothic buildings in Flanders at the former monastery of Ter Doest.

Also includes:
- Lunch at Restaurant Ter Doest in Lissewege.
- Traditional Belgian waffle for dessert.
- Delicious Belgian chocolates made by a traditional chocolatier.
- We finish with a visit to the micro-brewery Fort Lapin in Bruges, with a tasting of a couple of their excellent Belgian Beers. (incl.)

Philippe takes you off the usual beaten track of museums and churches to show the best his country has to offer.
